

THE ASSET

Written by
Matt Ragghianti

Based on a True Story...

A young, successful copier salesman from San Francisco is desperate to live a life as exciting as his own father's, finally gets his chance by working undercover for the FBI in an attempt to capture a Russian spy.

JAKE ANDREWS is the #1 copier salesman in the United States. He makes a ton of money, has plenty of friends and can talk the paint right off the wall. But the only thing Jake really wants is the one thing he doesn't have -- a life as cool and exciting as his father's, COLONEL JOE ANDREWS. So when what should have been just another day at the office results in being recruited to work undercover for the FBI, Jake jumps at the chance. He is asked to help investigate Russian Vice-Consul ALEXANDRE BELSKY, a young and dashing diplomat whom the FBI suspects of being a spy. But Jake won't be working alone. He is paired with the beautiful and ambitious Special Agent LYNNE HOLLOWAY who will pose as Jake's "girlfriend" throughout the investigation and, together with Alexandre's exotic girlfriend KATERINA, these four embark on a series of thrilling adventures and hysterical misadventures as they tour San Francisco and try to complete their respective missions.

When Jake's critiques of Agent Holloway's performance hit too close to home their relationship becomes hilariously rocky. However, the attraction they feel for one another can only be denied for so long. So when Agent Holloway discovers the mission is far more dangerous than they previously thought, she is horribly torn between her duty to her government and her personal concern for The Asset's safety.

In a thrilling climax Jake helps the FBI draw the true villain out into the open and unwittingly gives Lynne a chance to save his life and prove herself to her bosses at the FBI. And, in addition to getting the girl, Jake is finally able to see what everyone else around him, especially his father, always could: He's the Best Copier Salesman Of All Time. And that's pretty damn cool.